the least impatience.

Doctor R. was much mortified to think he had kept the audience so long.

All this I tell you for I now intend asking you if there are lectures in connection with your charge? If not what an advantage it would be to have them. Think what an error it would be to have muscles in wrong place or more drawn than there are and one very common error is to have the expansion of a muscle where the tendon should be etc etc.

Dear Sir,

Received your note of Sept. 11. 84. I am

I am now a little interested in the art Museum what was formerly the School of Design. In this way. I am assisting Mr. Rothacker in his lectures on Art Anatomy. My part is not a very important one, only to assist in demonstration after Lect.

Thus far the lectures have been very interesting. The doctor began his lect. expecting to take up 45 min. and the remainder of hour in demonstration. He lectures with great elegance and fluently so much so that on this occasion his lecture continued for one hour and a half without a single person in the audience losing interest or manifesting the least impatience. The reason for the long lecture was that the janitor did not ring the bell as he was told to do and the doctor's watch was stopped. He only quit at last for the reason that he had finished the subject in point.

I mention this to let you know that art students can take great interest in an anatomical lecture. In the audience of more than a hundred were quite a

H. H. Cremona Esq.
Dear Sir

My father has just received a letter from Mr. McCord saying they had got the space occupied by the original portrait of Washington by Coltr. belonging to him. Some of his friends had interested themselves in placing it before the press. So far nothing has been done. And for the last three years or so we have kindly given it a place in your gallery for which grateful thanks. Should you wish references, My Father is well known to the Rev Dr Walker of the Ohio Sem. My mother and is an intimate friend of Dr Holliday of Virginia and Dr Randolph Fisher. He was well known by your friend late Bishop Whitney who was your guest at his house. And who was always greatly interested in his preaching. I could give as many more references as you wish. I shall be glad to mail at your earliest convenience.

Very Respectfully

Mrs E. C. Paine

Winchester Va

We are very grateful.
Noting all our friends by letters well as possible. My father to put with the portrait which was very in the family since the last autumn. He is in very delicate health and his total discharges from an attack of scarlet fever die after him from going back. Which is a great loss for the support of his family. Before returning I have determined to appeal to you to purchase and ask of you the purchase of it for any price you or your committee may consider its just value. If you decide to purchase it for full value

Dear Sir

The Portrait of Genl. Ord is the property of Judge P. Ord - and was placed in the Gallery, subject to his orders, and I informed him that I had received a Note from you, requesting me to have it removed at an early day, and he promised to attend to it - ~~and~~ I am surprised it - I am very sorry that there has been so much delay in the matter -

My dear Sir,

I am just back from Venice and today went to Signor Lelli's establishment and made three rough sketches to enable you to distinguish the names of the three busts.

I need not tell you that it is trying times for American Artists living in Italy as the Cholera keeps all our friends away.

America is going through the ceremony of making a new President. Seems to me once in 6 years would be better for the prosperity of the Country.

With Mrs Mead's and my compliments to Mr Corcoran who we see by the papers is in good health Believe me,

Very Truly Yours,

Leah D. Mead.

I mail to you tomorrow the enlarged Catalogues of Sign Lelli's establishment. Perhaps you may see something in it that you like.

The four bass reliefs No 85 in appendix (appendix) are very fine, with quantities of figures, (Donatello)

Select what you see that you like and then if I can help to select others I will do so if you decide to make other purchases, and will see to forwarding them.
